The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Ecclesiasticus (35:12-17)

Mark Durham/Ruairi O’Neill

Give to the Most High as he has given to you, and as generously as you can afford.

For the Lord is the one who repays, and he will repay you sevenfold. Do not offer him a bribe, for he will not accept it and do not rely on a dishonest sacrifice; for the Lord is the judge, and with him there is no partiality. He will not show partiality to the poor; but he will listen to the prayer of one who is wronged. He will not ignore the supplication of the orphan, or the widow when she pours out her complaint.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm appointed for today is a portion of Psalm 84. We will read it responsively by half verse.

1 How dear to me is your dwelling, O LORD of hosts! *

My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

2 The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young; *

by the side of your altars, O LORD of hosts,
my King and my God.

3 Happy are they who dwell in your house! *

they will always be praising you.

4 Happy are the people whose strength is in you! *

whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way.

5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, * for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.

6 They will climb from height to height, *

and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion.

A Reading from Paul's Second Letter to Timothy (4:6-8, 16-18)

Mark Durham/Barbara Tuzio

I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and all the Gentiles might hear it. So, I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual: “We Limit Not the Truth of God” (v. 1-2)

(back of bulletin)

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (18:9-14)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Repeat the Gradual: “We Limit Not the Truth of God” (v. 3)

Announcements

The Bishop is Coming! Bishop Sally French will make her Episcopal Visitation on Sunday, November 2, 2025. We will have a single liturgy at 10 AM followed by an All-Parish Fancy Coffee Hour and time with the Bishop. Sunday school children are working on a special project and baking the communion bread. Parents, please make sure they are attending Sunday school and will be here on November 2nd.

All Saints Necrology: Please fill out the All Saints / All Souls necrology forms available in the narthex and by the sign-up bulletin board. This year there will be tables set up in the church where you may place photos of your loved ones. Their names will be placed on and around the altar and tables. A special bulletin insert will also be prepared containing all names submitted by Wednesday, October 29th.

The Saint Nicholas Bazaar will take place on Saturday, November 15th.

We are now accepting assorted household, decorative, Christmas items and collectibles, as well as toys and game donations for Santa's Attic and the Children's Corner. All gently used donated items can be dropped off to the church now through the end of the month. Please check your jewelry boxes – jewelry is in great demand. Leather bags, silk scarves, and leather belts are luxury items that are in great sellers. No other clothing items or electronics, however, can be accepted.

Family Game Night - Saturday, Nov. 8th in Bristol Hall at 4:30 PM

Come join the FUN and bring a friend! Snacks and water will be provided. We've had three great Bunco Nights, and they keep getting bigger and better! The game is simple and exciting! No skills are required other than rolling dice and having a good time! Sign up on the bulletin board or email

Parish Tree Lighting and Chili Cookoff

Wednesday, December 3rd, 5:30-7:30pm Calling all Chili Chefs – come with your special recipe to compete for All Saints' 2025 Chili Champion. Cornbread bakers we need you too. If you would like to participate, please sign up on the bulletin board. Suggested donation to attend is $5 per person or $20 per family. More details to come.

Attention All 10:15 Lectors, Acolytes, and Eucharistic Ministers, please use the Sign Up Genius to participate in services. This is a great way for the office to know who will be working at each service. If you do not use the computer/email and wish to serve, please let Robin know which dates and she will fill it in for you. There are many slots available in November-December.

As we head into fall our local food banks still need our attention. At All Saints, we support St. Gregory's Pantry

October needs: Paper products - toilet paper & paper towels, plates, napkins, lunch bags

November needs: canned fruits – applesauce, pineapple, peaches, pears, raisins and dried fruit, Thanksgiving non - perishables, canned or packets. You can bring your donated items to the church and place them in the marked baskets and bins. Thank you for remembering our neighbors who are less fortunate.

Don't miss your opportunity to dedicate a choir anthem. Speak with John Milas to choose your selection.

Coffee Hour Hosts Needed! Please sign up and take a turn hosting Coffee Hour. Wayne Morse has agreed to take on coordinating this vital welcome ministry. It is very easy, and there is help available in making coffee, putting out food, etc. You provide some snacks and serve as host(s). Great to do as a family or with friends.

Altar Flower Dedications: As we move deeper into the fall, we are always looking for folks to choose a Sunday to provide flowers for our altar, either in celebration of a happy event or in memory of a loved one. If you would like to participate, there is a flower book on the table in the narthex. Choose the date you would like, fill in the information requested, and the office will reach out to you early in the week chosen to ask for your dedication information. The cost for weekly flowers is $70. If you have a special flower color request, please All Saints Donations note this on the information sheet.

If you would like to make a donation to All Saints Church, please use your smartphone camera to scan the QR code shown at left.

We Limit Not The Truth Of God

George Rawson

MORE LIGHT

John Milas, AAGO, ChM

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It features a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats) and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with the piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the staff, with some words in italics. The score is divided into four systems, with measure numbers 5, 9, and 14 indicated at the beginning of the second, third, and fourth systems respectively. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

We lim - it not the truth of God to our poor reach of mind, to Who dares to bind to one's own sense the o - ra - cles of heav'n, for Cre - a - tor, Son, and Spi - rit, send us in - crease from a - bove; en - no - tions of our day and place, crude, par - tial, and con - fined; no, all the na - tions, tongues, and climes and all the a - ges giv'n? That

- large, ex - pand all liv - ing souls to com - pre - hend your love; and let a new and bet - ter hope with - in our hearts be stirred;

u - ni - verse, how much un - known! The o - cean un - ex - plored! The Lord has yet more make us all go on to know with no - bler pow'rs con - ferred:

light and truth to break forth from their word.
