The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Collect for Independence Day

Lord God Almighty, in whose Name the founders of this country won liberty for themselves and for us, and lit the torch of freedom for nations then unborn: Grant, we beseech thee, that we and all the people of this land may have grace to maintain these liberties in righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, fore ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from Lamentations 3:21-33

Gerald Harvey/Jeremy Lees

This I call to mind, and therefore I have hope: The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him." The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.

It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD. It is good for one to bear the yoke in youth, to sit alone in silence when the Lord has imposed it, to put one's mouth to the dust (there may yet be hope), to give one's cheek to the smiter, and be filled with insults. For the Lord will not reject for ever. Although he causes grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love; for he does not willingly afflict or grieve anyone.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 130

De profundis

- 1 Out of the depths have I called to you, O LORD;
LORD, hear my voice; *
let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.
- 2 If you, LORD, were to note what is done amiss, *
O Lord, who could stand?
- 3 For there is forgiveness with you; *
therefore you shall be feared.
- 4 I wait for the LORD; my soul waits for him; *
in his word is my hope.
- 5 My soul waits for the LORD,
more than watchmen for the morning, *
more than watchmen for the morning.
- 6 O Israel, wait for the LORD, *
for with the LORD there is mercy;
- 7 With him there is plenteous redemption, *
and he shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

A Reading from 2 Corinthians 8:7-15

Gerald Harvey/Meg Beresik

As you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter, I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something— now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has— not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written,

“The one who had much did not have too much,
and the one who had little did not have too little.”

Hymn: #493 “O for a thousand tongues to sing,” vs. 1-3

Azmon

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 5:21-43

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.” So, he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, “If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.” Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?” And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, ‘Who touched me?’” He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace and be healed of your disease.”

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please share the peace with those in your pew and a distanced greeting with others.

Offertory Anthem:

"Grant us light"

Eric Thiman

Grant us light in our minds, O Lord; Wisdom in thought and truth in word:
Understanding in all we do, that thy bright spirit may shine through.
Lead our steps and direct our will that we may work for thee
Until thy purpose is achieved on earth and undreamed beauty comes to birth
Grant us peace in our separate ways, and time to sing and speak thy praise,
That all our lives may come to be, a clear reflection Lord of thee.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW FOR THESE UPCOMING EVENTS!!

The Women's Guild's annual Luncheon and Fashion Show is being held at the Bay Head Yacht Club on Thursday, July 25.

This is the Guild's largest fundraiser each year. Planning is well underway, and there are many ways in which you can help. Our ad journal is an integral part of the financial success of the Fashion Show. If you have a business yourself or regularly patronize one, would you be willing to ask for an ad? Forms are available with all the pertinent information and are available on a table when you come in, or you can ask Linda Gyurko (landbg@optonline.net) or Hilary Morse (hilaryonel@aol.com) to provide one for you. Our gift baskets raffle is always a success on the day of the luncheon. Baskets are created, using a theme for each, by the women of the Guild and often in tandem with a friend. If you would like to create a basket, there is a sign-up sheet in Bristol Hall with some theme ideas or choose a theme of your own.

Contact Julie Chowansky (juliemchowansky@gmail.com) for more information.
