The Collect of the Day

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from Acts 4:5-12

Mark Durham/Ada Draesel

The rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?" Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is 'the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.'

There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved."

Psalm 23

Dominus regit me

- 1 The LORD is my shepherd; *
I shall not be in want.
- 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures *
and leads me beside still waters.
- 3 He revives my soul *
and guides me along right pathways for his Name's sake.
- 4 Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I shall fear no evil; *
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
- 5 You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *
you have anointed my head with oil,
and my cup is running over.
- 6 Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, *
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

A Reading from 1 John 3:16-24

Mark Durham/Meg Beresik

We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us—and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help? Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

People: Thanks be to God.

Orthodox Alleluia

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John 10:11-18

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father."

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People - Form 1

During Eastertide, we will use the bidding "Christ our hope is risen." Please respond with "Alleluia. Alleluia."

With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to the Lord. Christ our hope is risen.
Alleluia. Alleluia!

Remembering especially those caught in the violence and perils of conflict, we pray for the peace of the world, for the welfare of the Holy Church of God, and for the unity of all peoples; let us pray to the Lord. Christ our hope is risen. Alleluia. Alleluia!

For Michael our Presiding Bishop, Sally our Bishop, for the nominees for our next Presiding Bishop Dede, Scott, Daniel, Robert, Sean, and for all the clergy and people, let us pray to the Lord. Christ our hope is risen. Alleluia. Alleluia!

For Joe our President, for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority, and for a determination for them to act with respect and dignity, let us pray to the Lord. Christ our hope is risen. Alleluia. Alleluia!

For our communities, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray to the Lord. Christ our hope is risen. Alleluia. Alleluia!

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray to the Lord. Christ our hope is risen. Alleluia. Alleluia!

For the sick and suffering especially those on our parish prayer list:

Greg, Laurie, Joyce, Kathryn, Leslie B., Dick, Karen, Jim W., Martha H., Sarah, Laura, Alfredo, Ray, Linda R., Ian, Megan, Allison, Paula, John, Katherine C., Hannah, Les, Pete, Pat, Yolande, Jen, Jim, and Patti. Christ our hope is risen. Alleluia. Alleluia!

For those who will celebrate birthdays this week, especially Paul Chowansky, Lori Copman, and Jackson Leavy. And those who will celebrate anniversaries, especially Julie and Keith McBride.

For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, let us pray to the Lord. Christ our hope is risen. Alleluia. Alleluia!

The altar flowers are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of her brother Vincent Turturiello, by Phyllis Kata.

In the communion of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God. Christ our hope is risen. Alleluia. Alleluia.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

The Peace

Please share the peace with those in your pew and a distanced greeting with others.

The Communion of the People

All are welcome to receive Communion. If you are unable to go to the altar, please notify an usher. Communion will be brought to you. Those who desire to receive the wine may do so by intinction, which is to dip the host into the consecrated wine. It is available to all but required of none.

Communion Anthem: "Loving shepherd of thy sheep"

Barie Cabena

Loving shepherd of thy sheep, keep thy Lambs in safety keep.
Nothing can thy power withstand. None can pluck me from thy hand. Alleluia!

Loving shepherd, ever near, teach thy lambs thy voice to hear:

Suffer not my steps to stray from the straight and narrow way. Alleluia!

Where thou leadest I would go. Walking in thy steps below.

Till before my Father's throne, I shall know as I am known. Alleluia!

MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW FOR THESE UPCOMING EVENTS!!

A representative from the Point Pleasant Beach First Aid Squad is here today with the ambulance. A talk and demonstration will be given to the Sunday School children on first aid with hands-on opportunities for them to practice basic skills. Additionally, they will get a tour of the ambulance.

During coffee hour, Point Beach First Aid will give a class/demo for the adults on the use of AEDs, with emphasis on the one the church has.

United Thank Offering Ingathering, Sunday, May 5 Please finish filling up your blue UTO boxes that were given out at the beginning of Lent and bring them to church on Sunday, May 5, when we will present them with the offering and offer a special prayer of thanksgiving for the work of The United Thank Offering. If you did not use a box you can still participate by making a donation and writing UTO or United Thank Offering in the memo. Thank you to the Women's Guild for leading us in this annual international program!

A Big Weekend for All Saints!

Pentecost, Confirmation, and Celebration - Please join in making this a grand weekend of celebration and thanksgiving for our parish family.

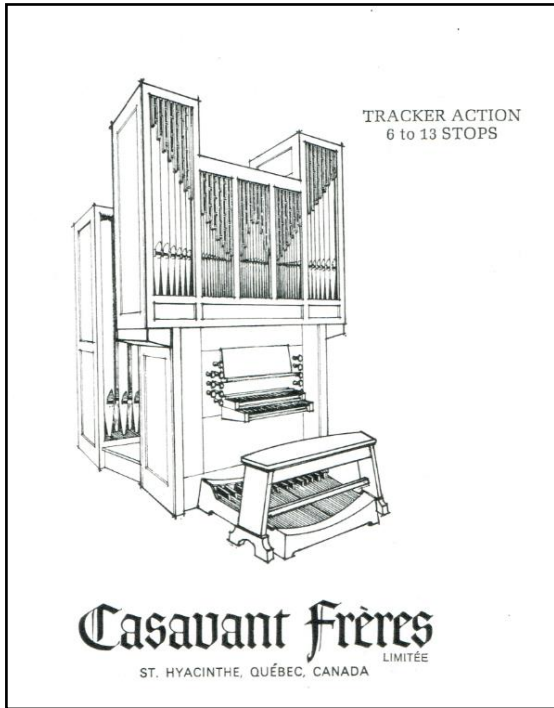

Saturday, May 18, 11 AM Confirmation at Trinity Cathedral, Trenton.

Shea Bicking, Eric Canales, Holly Canales, and Brannon McBride will be presented for Confirmation by Bishop Sally French. All are welcome and encouraged to come and support our candidates!

Sunday, May 19, 10:15 AM The Feast of Pentecost! Wear red and come celebrate this great feast! Confirmands will share with us the faith witness statements, and we are planning a picnic and party to celebrate! Pentecost is the end of the Easter season when we mark the gift of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the Church. Sign up for the picnic on the bulletin board!

Parish Game Night, Saturday, April 27, 4:30 - 6 PM It's time for another fellowship and game night! This time we will switch things up a bit and our afternoon will include teams. Some games will be for everyone and for some each team will nominate a member to complete the task for the team (Think "Beat the Clock" or "Minute to Win It"). Lots of cheering and fun will be had by all! This is for all ages and all abilities. Snacks will be served. Come and bring a friend!

Golden Anniversary Concert for our Casavant Pipe Organ - Friday, May 17, 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Mark Trautman will lead the All Saints Chamber Orchestra with organ soloist Dr. Michael J. Diorio in works of Bach, Guilmant, Krebs, Lefebvre, Mozart, and Reincken. Included will be the famed and virtuosic Organ Concerto in d-minor by J.S. Bach. Our organ was first played by Dr. Lee Hastings Bristol, Jr. on Easter Day 1974, and was formally dedicated that year at the opening of the summer season by the Rt. Rev. Albert W. Van Duzer, the Bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey, on June 30, 1974. The concert will closely mirror the opening concert played by Dr. Bristol with strings and winds in May 1974.

A reception and toast will follow in Bristol Hall, featuring select wines by parishioners Mark and Linda Carduner, owners of Working Dog Winery, Highstown, New Jersey, as well as a fiftieth-anniversary birthday cake! Members of the congregation and their friends are warmly invited to join us for this very exceptional evening.
