The Bristol Music Series

Join us ...

Friday, September 16, 2022 – 7 p.m. – Renowned Dutch organist and recording artist Lubbert Gnodde will perform works by Bach, Sweelinck, Healey Willan, and Ralph Vaughan Williams on the parish's 1974 Casavant Frères pipe organ. The winner of three international organ competitions, Mr. Gnodde now resides in Vermont, where he is an organ builder and church organist. (A free-will offering will be taken.)

Sunday, February 5, 2023 – 4 p.m. – Jeremy Lees, baritone, performs an hour of his favorite English songs, accompanied by pianist Kathleen Healy-Wedsworth. A long-time section leader in the All Saints Church choir, Mr. Lees has appeared as a soloist with The Monmouth Civic Chorus, The Shrewsbury Chorale, and the Concordia Chorale, among others. He holds an M. Mus. from the University of Colorado, Boulder. (A free-will offering will be taken.)

Sunday, April 24, 2023 – 4 p.m. – Dr. Michael Diorio, organist and director of music at the Church of the Redeemer (Episcopal) in Bryn Mawr, PA, will guide us through a one-hour exploration of the 1982 Hymnal. Dr. Diorio has performed extensively throughout the U.S., as well as Austria, the Czech Republic, England, and Germany, and holds music degrees from Westminster Choir College, the Yale Institute of Sacred Music, and Boston University. The audience will join in singing some well-known and some not-so-well-known hymns! (A free-will offering will be taken.)

You are invited to stay for wine and cheese following each program.
