The Collect of the Day

O God, from whom all good proceeds: Grant that by your inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by your merciful guiding may do them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from 1 Samuel 8:4-11, 16-20

Mark Durham/Ada Draesel

All the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, and said to him, "You are old, and your sons do not follow in your ways; appoint for us, then, a king to govern us, like other nations." But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to govern us." Samuel prayed to the LORD, and the LORD said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them. Just as they have done to me, from the day I brought them up out of Egypt to this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so also they are doing to you. Now then, listen to their voice; only—you shall solemnly warn them and show them the ways of the king who shall reign over them."

So, Samuel reported all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking him for a king. He said, "These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots and to be his horsemen, and to run before his chariots; and he will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and some to plow his ground and to reap his harvest, and to make his implements of war and the equipment of his chariots. He will take your male and female slaves, and the best of your cattle and donkeys, and put them to his work. He will take one-tenth of your flocks, and you shall be his slaves. And in that day, you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves; but the LORD will not answer you in that day.'

But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; they said, 'No! but we are determined to have a king over us, so that we also may be like other nations, and that our king may govern us and go out before us and fight our battles.'

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 138

Confitebor tibi

1 I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whole heart; *

before the gods I will sing your praise.

2 I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name, *

because of your love and faithfulness;

3 For you have glorified your Name *

and your word above all things.

4 When I called, you answered me; *

you increased my strength within me.

5 All the kings of the earth will praise you, O LORD, *

when they have heard the words of your mouth.

6 They will sing of the ways of the LORD, *

that great is the glory of the LORD.

7 Though the LORD be high, he cares for the lowly; *

he perceives the haughty from afar.

8 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *

you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;

your right hand shall save me.

9 The LORD will make good his purpose for me; *

O LORD, your love endures for ever;

do not abandon the works of your hands.

A Reading from 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

Mark Durham/Jeremy Lees

Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—“I believed, and so I spoke”—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So, we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

People: Thanks be to God.

Hymn #295 “Sing praise to our creator” vs. 1–2

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 3:20-35

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The crowd came together again, so that Jesus and his disciples could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, “He has gone out of his mind.” And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons.” And he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

“Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin”—for they had said, “He has an unclean spirit.”

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you." And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Offertory Anthem: "My eyes for beauty pine" (1925) Herbert Howells

My eyes for beauty pine, My soul for God's grace,
No other care nor hope is mine, To heaven I turn my face.
One splendor thence is shed from all the stars above:
'Tis named when God's name is said, 'Tis Love, 'tis heavenly Love.
And every gentle heart that burns with true desire,
Is lit from eyes that mirror part of that celestial fire.

Renewing and Planning for Parish Outreach All Saints has a vibrant tradition and servant's heart for outreach ministries. We are at a transition time with shifts in leadership and the needs of those we seek to serve. On Sunday, June 23rd, you are invited to join a discussion and discernment forum on the patio at the rectory from 11:30 to 12:30 / 12:45 PM. Light lunch will be served. It is time for us to take an overall look at where we feel called to be active, who is interested in which opportunities, and how to invite and empower broad participation in this vital aspect of our Christian lives. Please sign up on the bulletin board so we know how many sandwiches to order from Jersey Mikes!

Come to Cross Roads Camp with Reverend Kathryn!

Come to Cross Roads Camp with me! I REALLY LOVE CROSS ROADS CAMP! I am encouraging and inviting all children and youth who have finished 2nd grade up through high school to come to a week of camp with me. I will be serving as the Chaplain for the week, so this is an amazing chance for us all to have a great experience together. The Wardens, Vestry, and I think this is so important that we are paying 1/2 of the fee for each camper! Adults who are active in their faith point to Christian camping as a major contributor. Even if you are doing other local camps, I really want you to take this 1 week and come with us. We already have 2 committed ... and 2 kids from my last parish are going with us, too. Let's get that number higher! Happy to talk with you and answer any questions! Kathryn+

The Women's Guild's annual Luncheon and Fashion Show is being held at the Bay Head Yacht Club on Thursday, July 25.

This is the Guild's largest fundraiser each year. Planning is well underway, and there are many ways in which you can help. Our ad journal is an integral part of the financial success of the Fashion Show. If you have a business yourself or regularly patronize one, would you be willing to ask for an ad? Forms are available with all the pertinent information and are available on a table when you come in, or you can ask Linda Gyurko (landbg@optonline.net) or Hilary Morse (hilaryonel@aol.com) to provide one to you. Our gift baskets raffle is always a success on the day of the luncheon. Baskets are created, using a theme for each, by the women of the Guild and often in tandem with a friend. If you would like to create a basket, there is a sign-up sheet in Bristol Hall with some theme ideas or choose a theme of your own.

Contact Julie Chowansky (juliemchowansky@gmail.com) for more information.

Parish Night at the Blue Claws - It's that time of year again for All Saints baseball fans to take in a game and support the Jersey Shore BlueClaws. We will be attending the game against the Aberdeen IronBirds on July 26th at 7:00. This year we will be seated in a group along the 3rd base line. Tickets are $18 and include a hotdog, drink, ice cream and fireworks! Please sign up and send your fee to the church office by July 6th. We had a great time last year and hope to see you there!
