The Collect of the Day

Let your continual mercy, O Lord, cleanse and defend your Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without your help, protect and govern it always by your goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Prophet Isaiah (55:1-5)

Linda Carduner/Michael Ling

Thus says the Lord: "Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you."

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm appointed for today is a portion of Psalm 145 (145: 8-9, 15-22). We will read it responsively by half verse.

8 The LORD is gracious and full of compassion, *
slow to anger and of great kindness.

9 The LORD is loving to everyone *
and his compassion is over all his works.

15 The LORD upholds all those who fall; *
he lifts up those who are bowed down.

16 The eyes of all wait upon you, O LORD, *
and you give them their food in due season.

17 You open wide your hand *
and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

18 The LORD is righteous in all his ways *
and loving in all his works.

19 The LORD is near to those who call upon him, *
to all who call upon him faithfully.

20 He fulfills the desire of those who fear him; *
he hears their cry and helps them.

21 The LORD preserves all those who love him, *
but he destroys all the wicked.

22 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD; *
let all flesh bless his holy Name for ever and ever.

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Romans (9:1-5) Linda Carduner/Michael Ling

I am speaking the truth in Christ-- I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit-- I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual: “Christ, our Lord, you had compassion” (vs. 1-3)

back of bulletin

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew (14:13-21)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” Jesus said to them, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.” They replied, “We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.” And he said, “Bring them here to me.” Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

A Day at the Beach for Camp Faith Counselors - Help Needed

On August 5, All Saints will host the counselors from Camp Faith (St. Paul's, Camden) for a day at the beach. These counselors work with children ages 4-12 for four weeks in the summer, providing a safe, fun, and enriching environment in the city. In addition to crafts, games, and Bible study at the church, the children sometimes go to a farm or go bowling. Last year, they went to the Philadelphia Zoo; it was the first time 90% of the campers had been to a zoo! The day camp is free, and these young adult and teen counselors deserve recognition and a bit of fun for their efforts supervising the campers. If you can help grill or bring a dish, serve as a chaperone at the beach, or donate toward the ice cream truck rental, please use the sign-up sheet outside Bristol Hall.

THE DUCKS ARE COMING! We need everyone in the parish to get involved and support our fun community gathering and fundraiser.

THE DUCK DERBY, on Saturday, August 8, 12–3 PM. We need volunteers; there are many ways to get involved, sign up sheets are posted on the bulletin board. There is something for everyone, so please find your choice of how to be involved. AND - we need you to help get the word out and encourage friends and family to come! Ticket sales have begun during coffee hour.

Coffee Hour Hosts Needed! Please sign up and take a turn hosting Coffee Hour. Wayne Morse is coordinating this vital welcome ministry. Hosting is very easy, and there is help available in making coffee, putting out food, etc. You provide some snacks and serve as host(s). Great to do as a family or with friends. We are in need of hosts for 8/9, 8/23, & 8/30.

Mark your calendars! All Saints will once again be attending. We will begin to organize our tables/carpools and a sign up sheet will be available soon.

You're invited to "An Afternoon of Opera and Song" on Sunday, August 30 at 5 p.m., with an informal reception before the concert at 4 p.m., when we welcome three award-winning young opera singers from The Academy of Vocal Arts (AVA) (Philadelphia). Angel Raii Gomez, tenor, is a 2025 AVA graduate who will join the Metropolitan Opera for their upcoming productions of Andrea Chenier and Frida. Appearing with him at All Saints are Ethel Trujillo, soprano, and fellow rising star Ryan Wornall, bass, who will be accompanied by Maestro Richard A. Raub on piano.

Tickets are $30 per person (adults 18+), under 18 are free. To purchase tickets in advance, scan the QR code at the end of this week's Announcements and enter "opera" in the Note field. Tickets may also be purchased at the door by cash, check, or credit card.

Altar Flower Dedications: We are looking for folks to choose a Sunday to provide flowers for our altar. If you would like to participate, there is a flower book on the table in the narthex. Choose the date you would like and fill in the information requested. The cost for weekly flowers is $75.

SUPPER WITH ALL SAINTS...Kata's Kitchen is one of the longest running outreach programs of the parish. Affectionately known as SWAS to our team members, we are always looking for more folks to join the team as we prepare and serve a full meal on the last Tuesday of every month to approximately 25-30 guests from the surrounding area.

We purchase, cook, and serve the meals each month, and more hands in the kitchen would be very appreciated. The meals are served from 4:00–5:30 pm. and our guests are waiting at the door when we open. Please come by on the last Tuesday of the month to see how we welcome our guests who "are in need of a meal or some conversation." For more information, please contact Linda Gyurko by phone (908-510-2673) or by email at landbg@optonline.net.

Christ Our Lord, You Had Compassion

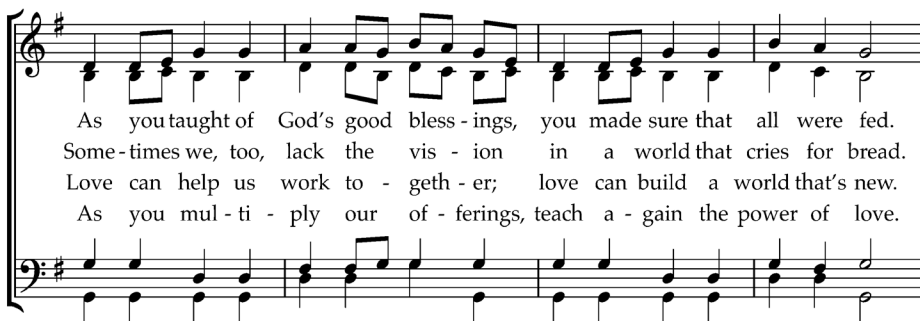

Carolyn Winfrey Gillette, 2023

Holy Manna

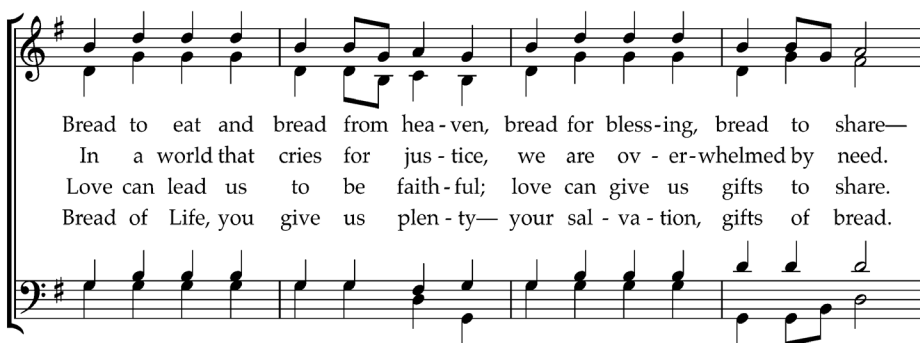

Columbian Harmony, 1825

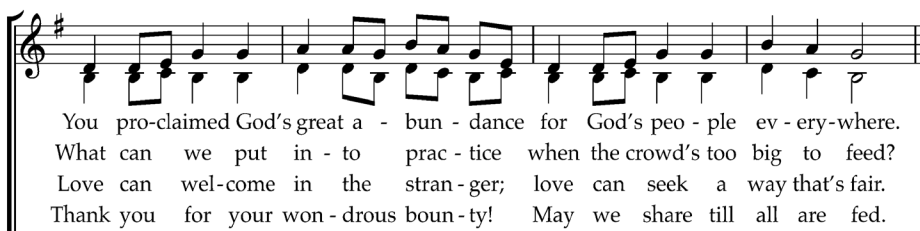

1. Christ our Lord, you had com - pas - sion on the crowds that need - ed bread.
2. Some saw on - ly what was miss - ing. "Je - sus, send them home!" they said.
3. God of love, we know our lim - its; show us what your love can do.
4. Christ our Lord, you of - fered bless - ings—bread and fish—more than en - ough.

As you taught of God's good bless - ings, you made sure that all were fed.
Some - times we, too, lack the vis - ion in a world that cries for bread.
Love can help us work to - geth - er; love can build a world that's new.
As you mul - ti - ply our of - ferings, teach a - gain the power of love.

Bread to eat and bread from hea - ven, bread for bless - ing, bread to share—
In a world that cries for jus - tice, we are ov - er - whelmed by need.
Love can lead us to be faith - ful; love can give us gifts to share.
Bread of Life, you give us plen - ty— your sal - va - tion, gifts of bread.

You pro - claimed God's great a - bun - dance for God's peo - ple ev - ery - where.
What can we put in - to prac - tice when the crowd's too big to feed?
Love can wel - come in the stran - ger; love can seek a way that's fair.
Thank you for your won - drous boun - ty! May we share till all are fed.
