The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from Jeremiah 23:1-6

Reader: Chad Newsome

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: "The Lord is our righteousness."

People: Thanks be to God.

Canticle 16 (responsively by half verse)

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; *
he has come to his people and set them free.
He has raised up for us a mighty savior, *
born of the house of his servant David.
Through his holy prophets he promised of old,
that he would save us from our enemies, *
from the hands of all who hate us.
He promised to show mercy to our fathers *
and to remember his holy covenant.
This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham, *
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
Free to worship him without fear, *
holy and righteous in his sight
all the days of our life.
You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, * for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,
To give his people knowledge of salvation *
by the forgiveness of their sins.
In the tender compassion of our God *
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,
To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, *
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: * as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from Colossians 1:11-20

Reader: Barbara Tuzio

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers-- all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual - Hymn #65 - "Prepare the way, O Zion" (vs. 1&2)

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (23:33-43)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." And they cast lots to divide his clothing. The people stood by, watching Jesus on the cross; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!" The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews." One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Peace

Please share the peace with those in your pew and a distanced greeting with others.

Offertory Anthem- *"O how amiable are thy dwellings"*Ralph Vaughan Williams

O how amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hosts!

My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord:

My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young:

Even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be always praising thee.

The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us:

Prosper thou the work of our hands upon us.

O prosper thou our handy work, O prosper thou our handy work.

O god, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

Psalms 84 and 90

After the offering is collected everyone is asked to come forward together and place your pledge card/representation card in the baptismal font. Please stay gathered in the transept where we will bless the Ingathering of Pledges and sing the Doxology.

After singing the Doxology please return to your pews for the celebration of the Eucharist.

Doxology and Hymn #717 - vs. 4

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below.

Praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Prayers of the People

November 20, 2022

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God. For all people in their daily life and work;

For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

During this season of stewardship we ask your presence with each of us as we make decisions about our faithful response to your blessings in our pledges of treasure, time and talent and we pray for this community, the nation, and the world;

For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

Remembering especially those who fear the loss of the protection of their personal liberties we pray for the just and proper use of your creation;

For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

Remembering especially those is the Ukraine and war torn and violence infected places of the world and all those impacted by Hurricane Ian we pray for all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;

For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For Michael our Presiding Bishop, Chip our Bishop, and all bishops and other ministers.

For all who serve God in the Church.

I invite you to join in speaking the names from our prayer list as we join in prayer for the special needs and concerns of this congregation

..... Hear us Lord.

For your mercy is great.

We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life especially remembering those who will celebrate birthdays this week especially Gail Habernickel, Matthew Lawson and Dick Williams; and those celebrating anniversaries.

We will exalt you, O God our King;
And praise your Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;
Who put their trust in you.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Here's what's happening at All Saints Church

- “ Parish Thanksgiving and Ingathering of Pledges On Sunday, November 20th we will begin a new parish family tradition with our Parish Family Thanksgiving and Ingathering of Pledges at the 10:15 service. This is a day for us to give thanks to God for the many blessings in our lives, the gift of our family of faith and the Ingathering of the offerings of our pledges for the coming year. Please use the sign-up lists that are in the narthex and the bulletin board in Bristol Hall to indicate how many in your household will attend and what side dish or desert you will bring to share as part of our 'turkey with all the trimmings' meal. This event is hosted by the Vestry and the turkey is covered. Please see Kathryn's article in the November newsletter for the details of the day.
- “ Annual Tree Lighting approaches! All are invited to attend our 10th Annual Tree Lighting at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, November 30. We begin by singing some carols and lighting the tree on the corner of Howe St. and Lake Ave. at 6 p.m. Then, for those who sign up in advance, we will adjourn to Bristol Hall for a dinner from Jersey Shore BBQ. It is an eat-in only event this year. Sign-up sheets will be posted outside Bristol Hall on November 20

- “ Toy and gift collection for St. Gregory’s Pantry will begin on Sunday, November 13th. Just look for our Christmas tree outside Bristol Hall, loaded with “ornaments” identifying whether the gift recipient is a girl or boy, age newborn to 18. Unsure what to purchase? A gift card to Target, Walgreen’s, or CVS can be donated so that parents can purchase a special gift for their child. Please bring gift cards or unwrapped gifts and leave them under the tree from November 19 through Sunday, December 10.

- “ Calling knitters, crocheters, seamstresses to make hats, scarves, cowls and ditty bags for the Christmas at Sea ministry.

- “ The NJ Chamber Singers are holding a raffle to support this year’s concerts. First prize is a $1,000 Visa Gift Card. Tickets will be available this Sunday during Coffee Hour. See Terry Williams.
