The Collect of the Day

Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Exodus (19:2-8a) Gerald Harvey/Kieran Ryan

The Israelites had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.”

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him. The people all answered as one: “Everything that the LORD has spoken we will do.”

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm appointed for today is of Psalm 100 . We will read it responsively by half verse.

- 1 Be joyful in the LORD, all you lands; *
serve the LORD with gladness and come before his presence with a song.
- 2 Know this: The LORD himself is God; *
he himself has made us, and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
- 3 Enter his gates with thanksgiving;
go into his courts with praise; *
give thanks to him and call upon his Name.
- 4 For the LORD is good;
his mercy is everlasting; *
and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Romans (5:1-8) Gerald Harvey/Barbara Tuzio

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person-- though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual: #312 "Strength for Service, Lord" (vs. 1-2)

Malabar

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew 9:35-10:8(9-23)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment. [Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for laborers deserve their food. Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave. As you enter the house, greet it. If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

"See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues; and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles. When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time; for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.”]

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Dedication of a Ministry - Kata's Kitchen Ministry: Supper With All Saints

Clergy: You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the Name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you.

Clergy: The eyes of all wait upon you, o Lord:

Congregation: And you give them their food in due season.

Clergy: Gracious God, source of all goodness, we give you thanks for the heart for ministry of your servant Phyllis. We are especially mindful of her gifts in establishing and leading this faith community in the establishment of Supper With All Saints and her faithful leadership for many years. We rededicate ourselves to this ministry as we rename it to honor Phyllis' model of selfless giving. In Christ's name. Amen.

Clergy: The Lord be with you.

Congregation: And also with you.

Clergy: Let us pray together. O Lord our God, you supply every need of ours according to your great riches: Bless the hands that work in the ministry of Supper With All Saints from Kata's Kitchen and give us grateful hearts for daily bread. May all who gather experience your welcome. May all who gather at our tables experience fellowship. May all who are fed be filled with nourishing food for body and soul. All this we pray through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

Please share the peace with those in your pew and a distanced greeting with others.

Announcements

- 6/30 Supper With All Saints @ 4:00 PM
- 7/12 The Rt. Rev. Marianne Budda guest preacher
- 7/23 Fashion Show @ BHYC

Are you feeling lucky? By now you've likely heard that All Saints is hosting its first-ever mid-year Day of Giving on July 12. Following 10:15 service that Sunday, the Stewardship Committee invites everyone to a picnic to thank all those who have made a pledge for 2026 that not only supports our parish operations but has transformed the lives of many in the community (including those who found comfort in the 300 meals prepared last year through Supper with All Saints and the 10,000 people in need served by St. Gregory's Pantry). And if you haven't made a pledge yet, it's not too late. You can still make a difference in our parish life and the lives of many others by filling out a Mid-Year Pledge Card by noon on July 12. All pledge cards for 2026 will be entered in a drawing for an official All Saints beach wagon! Check upcoming emails for details. For more information, or to pick up a Mid-Year Pledge Card, see Penny Witt, Sharon Babb, or Meg Beresik.

Pledge Status Report: 85 - 2026 Pledges total $179,743.00

2026 Pledges collected as of 5/31/2026 $ 94,120.00

Balance of pledges for 2026 $ 85,623.00

Exciting Opportunity for All Saints! Mark your calendars July 12th! The Right Reverend Mariann Budde, Bishop of Washington, will be our guest preacher! Bishop Budde, author of How We Learn to Be Brave, has a new book being released in early July. It is a children's book, and our own Margaret Draesel is the editor for Penguin Books! Bishop Budde will do a reading and book signing at an event that will follow a barbeque and be open to the wider public. Please mark your calendars. More information will follow. This is a very exciting and unique opportunity for us!! We will have one combined service on Sunday morning. The Saturday evening garden service will take place as usual.

Scholarship Applications Available Now. The Women's Guild Service Award Scholarship and the Cannon Scholarship applications can be found in Bristol Hall. All applications are due TOMORROW June 15th. Speak to Jo Patrone or Lori Copman if you have any questions.

THE DUCKS ARE COMING! We need everyone in the parish to get involved and support our fun community gathering and fundraiser.

THE DUCK DERBY, on Saturday, August 8th, 12-3PM. We need volunteers; there are many ways to get involved and each area has coordinators who will be posting sign-ups and information. There is something for everyone, so please find your choice of how to be involved. AND - we need you to help get the word out and encourage friends and family to come! Ticket sales will be starting soon.

Coffee Hour Hosts Needed! Please sign up and take a turn hosting Coffee Hour. Wayne Morse has agreed to take on coordinating this vital welcome ministry. It is very easy, and there is help available in making coffee, putting out food, etc. You provide some snacks and serve as host(s). Great to do as a family or with friends.

Altar Flower Dedications: With summer upon us, we are looking for folks to choose a Sunday to provide flowers for our altar, either in celebration of a happy event or in memory of a loved one. If you would like to participate, there is a flower book on the table in the narthex. Choose the date you would like, fill in the information requested, and the office will reach out to you early in the week chosen to ask for your dedication information. The cost for weekly flowers is now $75. If you have a special flower color request, please note this on the information sheet.

SUPPER WITH ALL SAINTS...Kata's Kitchen is one of the longest running outreach program of the parish. Affectionately known as SWAS to our team members, we are always looking for more folks to join the team as we prepare and serve a full meal on the last Tuesday of every month to approximately 25-30 guests from the surrounding area.

We purchase, cook and serve the meals each month and more hands in the kitchen would be very appreciated. The meals are served from 4:00-5:30 pm. and our guests are waiting at the door when we open. Please come by on the last Tuesday of the month to see how we welcome our guests who "are in need of a meal or some conversation." For more information please contact Linda Gyurko (908-510-2673) or by email at landbg@optonline.net.

The Women's Guild of All Saints will host its annual Luncheon and Fashion Show at the Bay Head Yacht Club on Thursday, July 23 at 11:30 a.m. Consider attending with friends or family! The ticket price is $75 and includes Lunch and a Fashion Show with clothing from Carrie Dunham, Andi's and Sunbaked Surf Boutique. There is also a 50/50 and our popular Basket Raffle. Proceeds are used to support fire, emergency and important local charities. Invitations will be mailed and made otherwise available in June. Please see Cheryl Smith or Penny Witt with invite questions.

Program Ads: Do you have your own business? Consider placing your business advertisement (or business card) in our program for as little as $35. Please see Linda Gyurko with ad questions.

This is the Guild's largest fundraiser of the year. We hope to see you all there! Any and all questions can also be directed to Hilary Morse (908-462-4527 or hilaryonel@aol.com).

Women's Guild Raffle Gift Baskets: Our gift baskets have been a BIG part of the Women's Guild Summer Luncheon and Fashion Show. We need help creating these prizes. Please consider joining a friend or making your own special theme basket for this year's fundraiser! Baskets will be provided, and we will wrap them up for the event. If you don't have time to shop, a gift card is greatly appreciated and can be tucked into one of the many special baskets. A sign-up sheet is in Bristol Hall. If you have any questions, please contact Julie Chowansky (732-740-9675).

Reflections on Stewardship

What is Stewardship?

All Saints' annual stewardship campaign is our ongoing effort to encourage transformational giving that does more than cover the costs of building this community of faith. It also helps continue our 137-year-old mission of serving God and the community, feeding the hungry, lifting spirits, and building relationships. As we prepare for our July 12 Day of Giving when we will celebrate our stewards and encourage others to join them, here are some thoughts on stewardship for our consideration and prayer.

Stewardship, simply put, is about using the gifts God has given each of us, to do the work God is calling us to do as a member of the All Saints family. Each of us must look within ourselves to discern how our unique talents/skills can best serve this work and how much of our treasure we can pledge to support All Saints' ministry within the wider community. Our pledge—when it is made thoughtfully and with love—expresses our gratitude for the abundant life we enjoy in the gift of God's creation; it also reflects the spirit in which Jesus Christ sacrificed his life for us—without reservation.

When we do this, we're really living the Good News and putting it into action. We're also providing for future generations to continue enabling All Saints to do the same, sharing in the life, worship, and responsible stewardship of the Church and of its mission.
